 INTRODUCTION *****

The Solar Return is a chart calculated for the time that the Sun arrives at the exact position of the Sun in your natal chart. That happens once every year around your birthday, but at a different time each year. This chart is calculated for the time of the Sun's return this year and marks the principal events for the year from birthday to birthday. This report also gives the location of your Solar Return. From this, it can be determined that some places are more favorable than others. With the aid of more than one report you could analyze the changes that are produced in the Solar Return Reports, choosing from different locations where you would want to spend the day.

This report essentially is divided into two parts. The first part analyzes the general external conditions of the year: opportunities and problems that could occur in different areas. For the benefit of students of astrology, the influence of the Ascendant and Midheaven of the return are described as well as that of the Sun and Moon.

The second part analyzes the twelve astrological houses, marking specifically in what area of your life the various astral influences will be manifested, emphasizing your probable responses and inner changes. This section analyzes the position of the solar houses on the natal houses, the planetary conjunctions, and the location of the planets in the houses. You will be given a description of the most important matters derived from the placement of the planets in the houses, which are outlined in the text for each of them.

In some cases you will find contradictions. A planet may be beneficial in a certain area, while others may indicate the opposite situation. This means that you could have two types of possible situations during the year. For example: a lover's quarrel and a following reconciliation. To get the most out of this report, it will be necessary to use your own logic and intuition, fitting the descriptions outlined here to your own particular case.

The objective of this report is to offer you a practical guide that helps you to analyze this year's prospects and to learn from them using your free will.

 FIRST PART *****

Chapter 1:
General characteristics of the year. The external conditions.

Solar Return Ascendant Capricorn :

During this year you will be more focused on your ambitions and goals. You will give more consideration to your financial situation. You will also be inclined to look seriously at the work you do. If you are not completely satisfied with it, you will start looking around for something you like better - one that gives you more responsibility and rewards for your efforts. This could be the year you get a promotion as your superior will see you as a more conscientious and productive employee. Thanks to your conscientious and continuous effort you can achieve everything that you set out to do, but don't expect it all to come easy. Saturn ruling this year forces you more than ever to face reality and your own limitations. If by nature you are not very practical or ambitious, you will have to try harder to make that impression on those in authority and to convince them that you do indeed deserve the respect you are seeking. On the other hand, if you are already hard-working and fairly ambitious, this could be your year to jump up the ladder. In either case, you will have the opportunity to change your life in some significant way.

Maturing is the key for this year. You will feel your needs changing, and in spite of an inner resistance, a part of you wants to take on new responsibilities and forge ahead. You probably won't see the entire picture all at once, but it is probable that whatever you undertake now will bring you satisfaction for a long time to come. Now is the time to make the effort and to even sacrifice in order to realize your most important goals. You will probably not get a lot of help from others unless you are willing to do the work.

Others will notice the dedication you are making. They will recognize that you are serious and respond to you in like fashion.

This influence could bring some problems with your bones and joints. It would be a good time to have your teeth checked and also to pay more attention to the care of your skin, fingernails and hair. Be sure to eat foods that are rich in minerals. There is also a possibility that your new-found ambition could cause you to over-work and become run down, which could result in depression or frustration.

During this period you could be so busy and absorbed with your ambitions that you tend to overlook your emotions. You may become more aloof and not have as much time for socializing. As a consequence, your friends and acquaintances may back away from you, not understanding your new attitude. It is important to allow adequate time for others and not get completely caught up in yourself and your projects. When this year is over, you would not want to find yourself alone. You might attract Cancer-type persons who could be most beneficial to you now as they may offer you understanding, protection, and support in your endeavors. This year does not leave much time for romance, love and adventure. You will be looking for people who can be your friend and understand the efforts you are making to improve your position in life and earn more money.

Solar Return MC Libra:

It will be possible this year to find the balance you long for. You will work tenaciously and persistently to materialize your goals. Diplomacy and your gift for sociability will go a long way toward achieving success in whatever you do this year. Overhasty actions and decisions without forethought will interfere with your progress. It will be important to think before you leap and plan your work carefully and calmly.

There is a possibility for romantic problems to occupy your mind a lot, which may interfere with your professional life. Deal with this by keeping your personal and professional life separate and don't waste your energy on it. If you can achieve emotional balance, you will be stronger in everything you do, but don't rely on others in order to achieve your personal success.

This influence favors working in groups to accomplish your goals, finding a solution to any legal problems you may have, and reconciling any differences you still have with others. It is important that you overcome and heal any bitterness or hurts you may have experienced in the past which might be standing in the way of your progress.

If your work is related to the courts, public relations, diplomacy, or some artistic form, you will have a year of progress and professional satisfaction. As a matter of fact, regardless of the kind of work you are involved in, you will find more harmony and balance than before.

However, this influence could also generate strong tensions within your home. The principal cause of the disagreements and arguments will come from others wanting to impose their authority on you. Fire also could be a threat now, especially if similar indications in this report indicate it. You should take the necessary precautions to insure your safety.

Chapter 2: Astrological influence of your personality.

Sun in 6th house:

You will work a lot during this year and will concentrate your energy on searching for more efficient and successful ways to do your work, especially if you are working for an employer. You will want to stand out from the rest of your associates for your good work and for the authority which you command, which could arouse jealousy and envy. If you work independently, this year should bring favorable working relationships with employees or service providers and vendors. In any case, work will be an important part of your life this year.

You may be more inclined to concentrate on service of some kind where you can use your abilities to help others.

It would be best to pay special attention to your health this year as there could be some problems. If you already have poor health, you should take extra care during this year. It is recommended that you watch your nutrition, adopting a diet that gives you the vitamins, minerals, and nutrients that your body needs. If you consider yourself a normally healthy person, don't take it for granted and be careful not to work yourself to exhaustion. It is important to watch your energy level and not overwork. Any health problem that manifests could be due to overdoing physically but it could also be due to emotional causes. If the Sun's aspects to other planets, which are described below, are especially negative, you should be especially careful to take care of yourself and not to overdo.

You might find that bringing a new pet into your home would give you much joy and relaxation.

Sun Conjunct Mercury

You could be more impatient and react too quickly or unwisely to situations you are not happy with. You will tend to cling stubbornly to your ideas, which could cause you to have disagreements and confrontations with people around you. You may impulsively decide to take a short trip, which may not work out to your advantage. There also is a tendency to get behind in your correspondence and to neglect to communicate as well with your friends.

Sun square Neptune:

Your idealism will be accentuated during this time and could cause you to be deceived by people in certain situations. Try to be realistic and keep your feet on the ground. There is a tendency to exaggerate reality and to develop insecurities or groundless fears. Under this influence, you are also inclined to daydream and to be careless with money and other things of value, which could expose you to robberies and other losses. You could find yourself in a state of confusion and uncertainty. This could affect your social or romantic relationships, bringing disillusionment, but also could very easily make you the victim. Don't avoid your responsibilities and become aware of your own errors.

Your level of energy will be low, and you could tire easily. Select your efforts and demands properly. Don't start projects or tasks that from the beginning seem impossible or very difficult to complete. You may have unusual or very strong reactions to medications, so don't hesitate to consult your physician as soon as it appears that the medication is not working properly for you, or the negative side effects are too great. When possible, use treatments that are very safe and free of side effects, such as homeopathic remedies, for problems with your health.

The most adverse effect this influence could produce is becoming rather noncommittal in dealing with people or issues. You could shy away from problems and confrontations, which sometimes could complicate matters. This same noncommittal tendency could generate bad habits or an increase in your consumption of cigarettes, alcohol or drugs if you are accustomed to using them. You must keep these habits under control and resist the desire to escape or run away. One solution could be to strengthen your spirituality, providing you don't carry it to extremes and become a religious fanatic.

Sun trine MC:

You will have a year of great progress and professional success. Your trust, enthusiasm, and the ability to channel your energies correctly will bring transformation and general improvement. There could be an increase in your income, and you also could resume an prior interest in some promising business opportunity. Your future goals will be very clear to you, and you will work efficiently to attain them. You will feel the satisfaction and pride of having done things well.

You won't find it necessary to rely on anybody. You could become centered, sure of yourself, and enthusiastic, thereby capturing the attention of others and making you their leader. You will know how to earn the respect of others. During all this time you will be a very responsible worker and at the same time will maintain a healthy social life without neglecting your own purposes.

Your creative capacity will increase as well as your ability to coordinate your efforts with that of others. Regardless of how much opposition you may receive, the final success will be yours. You will know how to choose people around you who are able to give you support. In your personal arena, your relationship with your father, or with someone who represents a father figure for you, will be a point of important support for the achievement of your goals.

Sun semisquare Uranus:

You will be very nervous and impatient during this year. You will get tired of your daily routine which could cause you to make quick and erroneous decisions. It is important that you moderate your impulses and act intelligently. You will require more freedom of action and you may become short and abrupt with people who interfere. You should try to direct your energies consciously, because reacting explosively will only complicate matters.

You also could be prone to accidents involving speed or electricity. Drive carefully. It will be very difficult to remain calm and tranquil during this year.

Sun quincunx Jupiter:

You could become involved in projects or tasks that go beyond your ability and energy level. Try to be realistic and sensible. You could be overly optimistic, thereby unduly minimizing the very real obstacles and situations confronting you. You should also take care not to neglect any legal matters that need your attention. Doing so could bring losses, fines, or law suits.

You also run the risk of being physically lazy, not paying much attention to your diet, which could cause weight gain or problems with the liver.

Chapter 3: The emotional world.

Solar Return Moon in Aries :

Your emotions will be intense and strong. You will show great enthusiasm and vitality and a considerable increase of your own self-esteem. On the other hand, you could also become more anxious and impatient than usual and express your feelings too strongly which could offend some people. Try to be more considerate and harmonious or you could have problems with the public in general.

Under this influence, you will be acting with a certain lack of finesse, which could at times cause problems with others, especially women. The relationship with your mother, or with other women in the family, could become complicated with arguments and disagreements. You will be too frank and direct in your speech, which could easily hurt other people's feelings. On the positive side, this influence could cause you to be more protective in defending your loved ones. If you could manage to be a little more sensitive during this year, you could accomplish a great deal more. Either way, you will be acting from your emotions and feelings.

You also will have an inner desire for adventure, challenge or risk taking. You will have more courage and won't be afraid to face adversities. However, it's important not to go to extremes. Use caution and don't expose yourself to danger. Use this positive energy for your own progress and personal growth.

Any physical activity will be good for the discharge of negative emotions. Think before you act and don't let impatience and aggressive feelings dominate you.

Solar Return Moon in 3rd house:

Your mind will be very active and you will rely a lot on your imagination, which will sometimes prevent you from concentrating on the every-day, practical things of life. You will be drawn to intellectual and literary activities, as well as all types of every-day communication, but you will need to make an effort to achieve the necessary concentration.

You will probably take many short trips because this will be a year of much movement. You won't want to adjust to any routine.

The relationship with your relatives, especially with your brothers and sisters, will be very important. You probably will resume contact with them and work on some joint task, although this could also mean the possibility of arguments and family rivalries. Or you could receive criticism and gossip from those in your inner circle.

Moon square Saturn:

You could feel very lonely and depressed at times under this astrological cycle. Your social life will not be as active, and you may wish to be alone more often than usual. You might have the feeling that nobody loves you or cares about you. You may have negative thoughts and tend to see your problems and your life in general as being much darker than they really are. You should try to suppress this kind of thinking and maintain as much objectivity as possible.

You could find yourself recalling former painful romantic situations from the past which have resulted in misunderstanding or separation. You could be unduly dwelling on perceived failures in love relationships which will need to be dealt with. It will be very difficult for you to relate emotionally to anyone during this time because you will tend to become cold, distant, and detached due to some injury you received that you have not forgotten. It is possible that a past relationship is not quite finished and needs to be resolved. This astrological aspect forces you to confront old, emotional karmic debts. It is important that you remain positive and objective in handling these negative emotions.

You also may have problems in your home life, especially with older people or those who exercise a certain authority in your life. This is not a good year to change your residence or to invest in real property.

It is advisable to watch your health, especially your digestive system. In a woman, this influence brings delays in the menstrual cycle and general problems with vitality.

Moon square Asc:

Your changes of mood will be very frequent and quick during this time, which may confuse others around you. At times you will adapt easily to the requirements of your surroundings. However, more often than not, the least little thing will distract you from the business at hand. This will hinder you at work, at home, and in your participation in any group activities. You will be more sensitive and more easily upset which will cause you to get irritated with others.

You won't be very logical or clear in the decisions you make because you will be reacting emotionally. Your judgment will be based on your mood at the moment and not carefully thought out which could cause problems later and lead you to question your own motivation. If you are planning to make an important change in your life at this time, be certain to reflect on it and to consider all sides before making a final decision.

Moon sextile Mars:

You will show great vigor, vitality, and enthusiasm for taking action during this year. You will be very quick-witted and will always know when to take action. You will be efficient and fast-moving, when necessary. Your trust in yourself will increase along with faith in your own opinions, which will attract others to you. You will be very convincing and will earn the support of the public in general. You could become a leader during this year.

You will begin several projects and can rely on the necessary energy to carry them out. Be constant and don't deviate once you have initiated a project. You will be able to rely on the support of your family, especially your mother and other women in your environment.

You will be intense and full of positive feelings. You will radiate enthusiasm, ambition, and courage. Physically, this influence is so beneficial that it will give you a high level of vitality, energy, and vigor. You will recover very rapidly from any illness.

This influence impels you to dynamic action and it would be a very good year for setting many goals. Remember that your active participation is necessary and you should not wait for others to improve your life, because now is the time for you to take action.

Moon semisextile Uranus:

You will make many favorable changes in your life in order to break up or change your routine. You will react more emotionally and express your feelings more freely. Due to this change in you, you may encounter some unusual relationships or situations. You will be attracted to unconventional or eccentric people.

On the other hand, your intuition will increase and you could have some metaphysical experiences.

There is a possibility of receiving some type of inheritance or legacy or some type of financial aid from your spouse, partner, or business associates.

Mars in 1st house of Solar Return:

You will have a year of much activity. You will search for solutions to your problems in an impulsive, quick, and energetic way and want to do instantly the things that need to be done. This will increase your aggressiveness and your anxiety. You will be less patient with others and will respond strongly to any imposition or interference. You will be more self-centered and self-seeking, thereby making your personal relationships more difficult. You will be less willing to yield your position, to change your mind, or to have concern for the wishes of others.

You will need to feel free and to be independent in order to be happy. As your willpower increases, you will become more authoritarian and dominant with others. You will be attracted to competition and challenges that will test your own strength.

You will be able to rely on great physical energy that will enable you to recover quickly from any adversity or illness. However, due to your increased impatience, you will be more likely to encounter dangerous situations and accidents than at other times. Be careful!

Saturn in 1st house of Solar Return:

This will be a year of personal maturation. You will find yourself forced to confront problems and obstacles that will require you to be more realistic and practical in resolving them. No matter what type of temperament you have, you will be more introspective and introverted now. Any type of therapy that you have during this time will be very beneficial because it will help you to understand your inner self better.

You will have some new responsibilities and liabilities that will limit your personal freedom. You may find yourself being tested to the limit as these experiences could be difficult and distressing for you. You must work on overcoming any feelings of fear, pessimism, or depression. If you don't deal with these fears, you will encounter similar issues in the future which might be even more difficult to resolve.

Physically, your energy level will probably be low, so it will be necessary to maintain a diet that provides the nutrition your body needs, especially calcium.

Pluto in 1st house of Solar Return:

You should confront these inner emotions and memories during this year as you will find that you have the necessary strength of will to do so. You can make many positive changes, especially in your inner self. You will see and appreciate things in your surroundings in a different way. However, if you don't allow this energy to flow easily and produce the desired transformation within you, you will have a difficult year dealing with crises or very tense situations. Pay attention to your newly acquired needs and work on incorporating them into your life. You will confront new challenges and will have moments which will test your determination to meet them head on but you will know deep down inside that you can.
